

Change, Changes Everything

Music and Lyrics by April Dawn Lewis
Hard Rock, Fast Beat

(Instrumental)

When I left, I thought that I would die.

I thought I'd be better off without you.

You weren't there to see me cry.

I couldn't feel your touch. I couldn't smell your skin. I couldn't take a breath.

I didn't know where to be-gin.

(Instrumental)

I wanted you to accept me, Protect me, cherish me, love me.

Change, changes every-thing, change has changed me.

I say don't be sad, but you say it's a little too late for that.

Change, changes every-thing.

When you left, You thought that you would die.

You thought you'd be better off without me.

I wasn't there to see you cry.

You couldn't feel my touch. You couldn't smell my skin. You couldn't take a breath.

You didn't know where to begin.

You wanted me to accept you, Protect you, cherish you, love you.

Change, changes every-thing, change has changed you.

You say don't be sad, but I say it's a little too late for that.

Change, changes every-thing.
