

Remember

Music and Lyrics by April Dawn Lewis
Soft Pop, Medium Beat

(Instrumental)

Remember when we laid down in a field of grass staring up into the a sky

The wind tickled my nose as we counted the clouds floating by

(Instrumental)

Why did this feeling ever have to end?

Why can't we just pretend to.....still be in love?

Because I just can't mend your broken heart.

Remember when we used to hold hands and walk in the so ft summer sun

Happily whispering to each other when we had first begun

(Instrumental)

Why did this feeling ever have to end?

Why can't we just pretend to.....still be in love?

Because you just can't mend my broken heart.

Remember when we wanted to spend our lives together but couldn't find a way

We couldn't wait for that to happen forever and a day

(Instrumental)

Why did this feeling ever have to end?

Why can't we just pretend to.....still be in love?

Because we just can't mend our broken (pause) hearts.
